

Financial Assistance Summary

NOTE: This document is only a sampling of available grants and by no means all inclusive. The Canadian Directory of Foundations lists all foundations and grants in Canada. It is available in public libraries in many larger communities and at university libraries. The directory lists approximately 200 granting foundations and includes a listing of their average grant range, officers and board of directors and types of funding (types of support and funding restrictions).

Charity Village is another option to locate foundations in Canada. They are online at www.charityvillage.ca

LAST UPDATED: July 2014

The information in this document is NOT a comprehensive list of grants or programs but rather a sampling of some of the financial services offered by various associations and agencies. By no means exhaustive, the following is intended to provide groups, individuals and organizations with information on some types of funding and contacts (names/email addresses/websites) to get them started in their quest for financial assistance. This list was updated in July 2014, however, the information is subject to frequent changes and potential applicants are encouraged to verify any information contained herein before proceeding.

The AMDF is designed to assist conventional production practices and encourage new business models and alternative distribution or broadcast delivery options for screen-based audio-visual content creators. The AMDF encourages the development of local screen-based production expertise and talent; sustained industry development; increased investment in Alberta-based production; and use of Alberta as an international film, television and digital content location that employs Alberta-resident production labour expertise. The AMDF provides funding for screen-based content creation through five funding programs. See website for eligibility and guidelines.
Alberta Culture Alberta Foundation for the Arts	10708 – 105 Avenue Edmonton, AB T5H 0A1	Phone: (780) 427-9968 Fax: (780) 422-9132  http://new.affta.ab.ca/About-the-AFA
WHO WE ARE: A crown agency of the Government of Alberta, the Alberta Foundation for the Arts (AFA) was established in 1991 with a mandate to support and contribute to the development of the arts in Alberta. It replaced the Alberta Art Foundation, the Alberta Foundation for the Performing Arts, the Alberta Foundation for the Literary Arts, and the arts and cultural industries grant programs of Alberta Culture and Multiculturalism. Reporting to Alberta's Minister of Culture, and guided by the objectives found in the 1991 Alberta Foundation for the Arts Act (AFA Act), available from the Queen's Printer, the AFA provides grant funding to artists and art organizations to encourage the growth and development of the arts sector. It also promotes the arts and manages an extensive art collection, valued at over $10 million, featuring work from artists all over the province. WHAT WE DO: GRANTS: The AFA's strategies are implemented by two dedicated teams. The AFA Board is responsible for the disbursement of grants, prizes, and competitions, as well as the acquisition, exhibition, and preservation of art. Administrative, consultative, and technical support is provided by the Ministry of Culture's Arts Branch. The AFA receives funds annually from the Alberta Lottery Fund, which it then distributes, in partnership with the Arts Branch of the Alberta Government's Alberta Culture department, to artists and art organizations across Alberta. AFA grant funding supports creative activity in the performing, visual, literary, and the film/video arts disciplines. AFA grants serve every region in the province, enhance the province's economic and social status, and contribute to every Albertans' quality of life. Grants from the AFA support a wide range of art initiatives including: Festivals/Artists-in-Residence programs Emerging artists Exhibits Community events Performances Education ARTS PROMOTION: The AFA supports the arts through various promotional strategies and activities which help to generate awareness of the value of the arts with the public and key stakeholders. AFA ART COLLECTION: Since 1972, the AFA and its predecessor foundation, the Alberta Art Foundation, has been collecting and managing a wide range of artwork that continues to grow and expand exponentially. Pieces from this collection are exhibited and showcased locally, provincially, and nationally, and are enjoyed by thousands of Albertans. Please see the Provincial Art Collections page for more information regarding exhibition and loan opportunities.
